

Proven data analysis that supports JFY’s AIMS methodology

We provide reports at regular intervals throughout the year to guide instruction. We also analyze performance at the end of the school year. This year-end analysis shows that student performance rises with time on task in our software. These reports help students and schools achieve higher outcomes.

